Dear Stripe

Thank you for this emailed acknowledgement of proceedings.

I wish to say that the days and years since the Conservative Libertarian Society was born funded by The Conservative Libertarian Publications Limited are firmly over, and we are a charitable institution by the force of declaration as stated here: Discussions on the Conversion of TCLS/TCLP to a religious charity

The teething problems are being resolved as I write with our primary devotional worship of God membership being <https://app.joinit.com/o/vishista-advaita-sampradaya>

Vishista Advaita Sampradaya Memberships - Membership Management Software

We are a religious organization believing in a Personal God but live independently of God in conducting good wor...

and the wider congregation that we are forming through our website

<https://www.knowledgefoundersunited.com> set up for all intents and purposes to be a channel to preach our religion to students, people of faith, government workers, environmentalists, and all forms of industrialists not just in the United Kingdom but whoever might be interested in registering as Members of The Conservative Libertarian Society.

We still need a Bank Account that payments and payouts can be processed by Stripe from, and I would plead with you to retain the parent organisation 'The Conservative Libertarian Publications Limited with its Tide Bank connection for the processing. If this is not acceptable to Stripe, I would give my another NatWest Bank Account as a personal Account that you might consider appropriate. If this is not acceptable either, let me know and I will open a new Bank Account by the name of 'The Conservative Libertarian Society, by due process.

By deleting the posts in our Join it Account and retaining only two posts to talk about God I have taken this first step in the direction that Stripe has for long indicated that I should take.

I have also given you my solemn undertaking that I will not go back on my words taken in the sight of God as a vow, that we will not engage in any kind of commercial activities or political activities.

If this is a good basis for proceeding forwards on this Christmas Day appropriately, kindly restore our TCLS/Vishista Advaita Sampradaya Account at Stripe how you see fit, for without Stipe's backing our mission to bring peace and harmony as a religious karma in sanatan dharma will not go ahead.

I am copying this email to Medway County Court to let the court authorities know that I am terminating J00ME572 Case immediately.

I look forward to your reply.

Yours sincerely

Dear Stripe

There appears to have been some crossed lines in our correspondence, for I onboarded to Stripe from the Payment Gateway at Brilliant Directories and the Membership Account 'Knowledge Founders United' using my shantanupanigrahi@yahoo.com Email Account successfully, and made the alterations necessary to reflect the current situation by sending you the attached email which showed that the account was verified and nothing further needed to be done - as attached:

ToStripe(CharityCommission_CabinetOfficeAcknowledgement)24Dec2024.docx.

I do not normally use my shanpanigrahi7000@outlook.com except for very limited purposes, but if Stripe decides that I should do so I will go ahead and repeat the process.

Hi Shantanu,

Thank you for reaching out to Stripe. I see you have a query regarding the disabled email notifications. I'm here to assist!

It looks like your mail server returned an error when attempting to send an email to them. Once Stripe receives a failure response of that nature, we stop sending future emails to that address. I've removed this block, so you should be able to receive Stripe emails again, assuming your mail server does not return another failure error.

Please note, this is only for emails going forward—we're unable to retroactively send older emails that were not sent because of this block.

Since we have already removed the block, you should now be able to receive the verification email to login into your account. Furthermore, once you are able to login and you still feel the need to close the Stripe account which is registered with the email address s(redacted)0@o(redacted)k.com", you can close it from your Dashboard. To do this, click on the "Settings" tab, and then click into the section titled "Account Details". Once there, you will see a button to close your account: <https://dashboard.stripe.com/account>

There are a few important things to keep in mind when closing your account. Here's a link that provides more insight into this process, and explains what happens to your account once it's closed: <https://support.stripe.com/questions/close-a-stripe-account>

Also, if you still face issues with logging into the Stripe account registered with the email address "s(redacted)0@o(redacted)k.com", I would request you to reach out with the same registered email address along with the reference of the ticket number "18743460".

I hope this information was helpful for you and in case of any further assistance, please feel free to reach back to us.

Best,

Tavleen

Hello Rick

It is clear that our computer Acer is too old and so is our HP lap top which cannot cope with the demands of more modern technology. When I use my Samsung phone, everything works perfectly.

Sorry to have cause you so much hassle when it is clearly something to do with our home technology.

I will continue using my mobile phone and pass the joining link to my 2000 connections in LinkedIn to see what their experience is.

I withdraw unreservedly my earlier comments attributed to Brilliant Directories and will put in an blog post to that effect in my Daily Bulletin website so that your reputation is not tarnished.

Could you please test the site from your end using the following tool.

This will indicate if the problem is related to a local issue.

If the results of this test say otherwise, please make sure to let us know. Also in case this is not what you are making reference to, would you please record a short video of the issue at hand? Thank you in advance for your assistance with this matter, we look forward to your reply.

Dear Stripe

Thank you for this emailed acknowledgement of proceedings.

I wish to say that the days and years since the Conservative Libertarian Society was born funded by The Conservative Libertarian Publications Limited are firmly over, and we are a charitable institution by the force of declaration as stated here: Discussions on the Conversion of TCLS/TCLP to a religious charity

The teething problems are being resolved as I write with the our primary devotional worship of God membership being

<https://app.joinit.com/o/vishista-advaita-sampradaya>

Vishista Advaita Sampradaya Memberships - Membership Management Software

We are a religious organization believing in a Personal God but live independently of God in conducting good wor...

and the wider congregation that we are forming through our website

<https://www.knowledgefoundersunited.com> set up for all intents and purposes to be a channel to preach our religion to Students, people of faith, government workers, environmentalists, and all forms of industrialists not just in the United Kingdom but whoever might be interested in registering as Members of The Conservative Libertarian Society.

We still need a Bank Account that payments and payouts can be processed by Stripe from, and I would plead with you to retain the parent organisation 'The Conservative Libertarian Publications Limited with its Tide Bank connection for the processing. If this is not acceptable to Stripe, I would give my another NatWest Bank Account as a personal Account that you might consider appropriate. If this is not acceptable either, let me know and I will open a new Bank Account by the name of 'The Conservative Libertarian Society, by due process.

By deleting the posts in our Join it Account and retaining only two posts to talk about God I have taken this first step in the direction that Stripe has for long indicated that I should take.

I have also given you my solemn undertaking that I will not go back on my words taken in the sight of God as a vow, that we will not engage in any kind of commercial activities or political activities.

If this is a good basis for proceeding forwards on this Christmas Day appropriately, kindly restore our TCLS/Vishista Advaita Sampradaya Account at Stripe how you see fit, for without Stripe's backing our mission to bring peace and harmony as a religious karma in sanatana dharma will not go ahead.

I am copying this email to Medway County Court to let the court authorities know that I am terminating J00ME572 Case immediately.

I look forward to your reply.

Yours sincerely

Hi Shantanu,

Thank you for reaching out. Before proceeding, we're going to need you to take an extra authentication step.

Our users' account security is extremely important to us here at Stripe and, as a result, we can only give out specific information or take certain actions on a Stripe account if you've definitely authenticated yourself as a user on that account.

You should have recently received an email from us in response to your request which provides an option to authenticate this particular support request. Simply click the link in that email, sign into your Stripe account and everything will be in order. To save you time, I'm providing the same link below:

Link

Alternatively, you can navigate to the URL below, login and resend your email to us using the form there:

<https://support.stripe.com/contact/login>

Sending a message using that form while logged in will securely connect your message to the account you're writing from, and allow us to provide more information about refunds and account status.

We appreciate your cooperation during this process. If you happen to have additional questions, let us know.

Regards,
Sara

Dear Stripe

There appears to have been some crossed lines in our correspondence, for I onboarded to Stripe from the Payment Gateway at Brilliant Directories and the Membership Account 'Knowledge Founders United' using my shantanupanigrahi@yahoo.com Email Account successfully, and made the alterations necessary to reflect the current situation by sending you the attached email which showed that the account was verified and nothing further needed to be done - as attached:

ToStripe(CharityCommission_CabinetOfficeAcknowledgement)24Dec2024.docx.

I do not normally use my shanpanigrahi7000@outlook.com except for very limited purposes, but if Stripe decides that I should do so I will go ahead and repeat the process.

Hi Shantanu,

Thank you for reaching out to Stripe. I see you have a query regarding the disabled email notifications. I'm here to assist!

It looks like your mail server returned an error when attempting to send an email to them. Once Stripe receives a failure response of that nature, we stop sending future emails to that address. I've removed this block, so you should be able to receive Stripe emails again, assuming your mail server does not return another failure error.

Please note, this is only for emails going forward—we're unable to retroactively send older emails that were not sent because of this block.

Since we have already removed the block, you should now be able to receive the verification email to login into your account. Furthermore, once you are able to login and you still feel the need to close the Stripe account which is registered with the email address "s(redacted)0@o(redacted)k.com", you can close it from your Dashboard. To do this, click on the "Settings" tab, and then click into the section titled "Account Details". Once there, you will see a button to close your account: <https://dashboard.stripe.com/account>

There are a few important things to keep in mind when closing your account. Here's a link that provides more insight into this process, and explains what happens to your account once it's closed: <https://support.stripe.com/questions/close-a-stripe-account>

Also, if you still face issues with logging into the Stripe account registered with the email address "s(redacted)0@o(redacted)k.com", I would request you to reach out with the same registered email address along with the reference of the ticket number "18743460".

I hope this information was helpful for you and in case of any further assistance, please feel free to reach back to us.

Best,

Tavleen

Purpose of this Directory

Purpose of this Directory

Dear all of humanity worldwide

Although there being limited space to include everyone that this Website caters for, we bring all of humanity together in the spirit of service to God, who the author found over a 52 year period bestows all knowledge to all the people in the most pristine truth possible.

This is the faith of karma in sanatan dharma in relation to knowledge acquisition by the individual. For knowledge is of service to all humanity, and I know from my research into the Nature of God and in following first my scientific career at the University of Greenwich's Natural Resources Institute that devotion that Hindus call bhakti is not only the source of material knowledge of science, it is also the source of knowledge in all walks of life from Farming, Industry, Government, and Studentships.

Through this Directory we have set ourselves on the path of coalescing knowledge from across the board by encouraging everyone from Students, Researchers and countless others into what will work for them and this is a socio-religionist mission from the Founder, Dr Shantanu Panigrahi.

Steps have already been taken to work with the Charity Commission of the United Kingdom to grant us Charity status for we work from our own resources and use our Members suggestions that we will submit to Stripe (our Bank that processes all Membership fees that we receive) and what we use that money for in order to keep our websites functioning (these total 28 websites and 300 eBooks, available for downloading free here: <https://archive.org/details/@panigrahi491>)

For those who are also strong believers in God we have a sister website:
<https://app.joinit.com/o/vishista-advaita-sampradaya>

This is the introduction to our Knowledge Developers United Directory.

There is no law in the United Kingdom on these matters, one fights and gets what one can get. The Police is not acknowledging my email, none of the Courts never acknowledged the vast majority of my emails and when they did they were not palatable towards my needs for justice. That is why the Monarchists are so powerful that they can manipulate every institution through a surveillance society using people as moronic tools in their machinery protected by the State. The Police and the Courts might as well be described as part of the Monarchical State machinery, for no Prime Minister of Cabinet would have given the orders to persecute me as I have been persecuted over the past 26 years. They have watched silently as if nothing has ever happened. This applies to the House of Commons Petition Committee covering up from orders from the Monarchical State machinery to water down my petition to an inconsequential one that is barely of any use even if it got the required signatures and it is stuck on 57 so going nowhere.

To force these truths out in the open I now do nothing just use this line of arguments in any Defence that I may need to file to charges that may be considered as threatened for so long on me.

5. Who do I say all this to any more, I wondered. Stripe of course because it is intrinsic to the Dispute being resolved.

6. Thank you for an early settlement.

Yours sincerely

 Hello there,

Thank you for taking the time to reach out to us. I understand your position concerning your account. Allow me to share some updates with you.

After an internal validation, I noticed that you have an ongoing conversation with another specialist about your payouts. Specifically, in case reference: 18550523. That's why, to centralize communications, I'll let them know you reached out and they should get back to you with additional information.

We appreciate your patience. For the time being, you are more than welcome to message back if you have other Stripe related inquiries.

Best,

Alice

Comments

Having recorded the two communications into the Gmail Account which is redundant in relation to Stripe, I deleted all rubbish emails from the Gmail Account including the two Stripe ones.

Let the matter go to Medway County Court now where there is a £300 million Claim outstanding under J00ME572.
